THE HONOR CODE

We, the students, families, and faculty of Texas Christian Academy, recognizing the need for an atmosphere of mutual respect and trust in any academic community, agree to conduct matters in a manner consistent with the Texas Christian Academy Honor Code.

The Honor Code: To develop and equip servant leaders for God's glory.

“Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord.”

“Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breast plate of righteousness in place, and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. In addition to all of this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.”
-Ephesians 6:13-17

The TCA Honor Code is based on the principles of love, honor, truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, Spirit and the word of God. All TCA students and faculty are committed to these principles and values.

Violations of the Honor Code, whether on or off campus, will not be tolerated.

Violations include, but are not limited to: lying, cheating, stealing, defaming others or TCA, fighting, damaging the property of another, illegal or immoral behavior, or remaining silent when I have knowledge of these actions.

Violations of the Honor Code will be subject to disciplinary action by the school administration and may result in suspension or expulsion from TCA.
